

PAN-PACIFIC & SOUTHEAST ASIA WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION PPSEAWA TAIWAN R.O.C.

PPSEAWA Taiwan's Efforts & Achievements

Members from PPSEAWA Taiwan have increased to 91 from 67. Many of our new members with the age of under 40 years old or even younger. In addition, they are elite women from different professionals.

MS. Regina Chen has been elected as president of PPSEAWA Taiwan since July 2013.

President Regina Chen with her business experiences and expertise, has defined PPSEAWA Taiwan's endeavors on strengthening mutual understanding & friendship among countries in Asia Pacific & South East Asia, conducting research on women's related issues and experience sharing, and promoting international women exchange & people-to-people's diplomacy. It's expected that PPSEAWA Taiwan's 89-year-history would be going strong, sustainable and stepping into a new era under Regina's leadership.

Established three committees: International Affairs, Membership Development and Projects /Activities Planning.

President Regina Chen with her innovative idea to launch PPSEAWA Taiwan's bilingual website:
www.ppseawa.org.tw

The bilingual website was impressed by delegates for the Mid-term Council Meeting in Chicago in 2014.

To hold all kinds of members' gatherings to agglomerate sisters centripetal force.

President Regina Chen (second from the right) was invited by the Minister of Interior Affairs to the dinner party for "Stop Trafficking in Person" workshop.

In response to the UN Environment Day in 2015, PPSEAWA Taiwan, R.O.C. initiated a visit to the most renowned low-carbon community in Taipei.

PPSEAWA Taiwan and the Millennium Cultural and Educational Foundation ( MCEF ) jointly held a seminar on "the Reflection of Media Power" on April 17th, 2014.

PPSEAWA Taiwan has cooperated with many local NGOs to organize all kinds of workshops, forums and volunteer trainings every year from 2013 onward.

Participation in international affairs

Delegates from PPSEAWA Taiwan participated in the 25th PPSEAWA International Conference in Suva, Fiji.

President Regina Chen sponsored American Chinese teenagers to Taiwan for a two-week cultural studies workshop.

PPSEAWA Taiwan has been actively participate in the UN CSW Forum every year since 2014.

For the first time, PPSEAWA Taiwan organized a Parallel Event at the UN CSW 60 (2016)—Cybercrime against Women and Girls on Stalking, Sexual Assault, Intimate Partner Violence and Human Trafficking on March 14, 2016 at Thai Cultural Center, New York. Among audiences were many young women advocates.

